

From: Adrian Chetwynd
To: Adrian Chetwynd
Subject: Fwd: Former boundaries of Poland
Date: 28 November 2018 16:59:58
Attachments: image.png

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Adrian Chetwynd <ad.chetwynd@gmail.com>
Date: Thu, 17 May 2018, 04:43
Subject: Re: Former boundaries of Poland
To: Barbara Ann Nowak <banowak03@gmail.com>

Hi

My phones email didn't send so here is what I said.

Auschwitz appears to be in Germany when Krakow is used as a reference point. Kattowitz which is slightly north of Krakow also has a Z at the end of its name which suggests to me that it's a German name too. The river Sota is just below Auschwitz which would make it a logical southern boundary for pre-treaty Germany.

A few more points:

Bear in mind that the jew commie Russians had control of Poland for 45 years which gave them plenty of time to rewrite history. I am sure you are aware that every single one of the so called death camps are located in former commie jew controlled Poland.

I have reason to suspect that Germany did not bomb a certain part of London, so I'm open-minded to the possibility that Britain bombed certain parts of Poland and blamed it on Germany. My initial investigations suggest that about half of the Polish towns that Germany is alleged to have bombed, belonged to pre treaty Germany. so why would they destroy territory that they had reclaimed? A long shot I know, but we are lied to about so many things aren't we.

The area I refer to in London was poor, very accurately bombed by a hoax weapon that had no guidance system let alone a steering mechanism. The area was ripe for modernisation so coupled with the war propaganda benefit, can you see the motivation for Britain to bomb its own property?.

On Thu, May 17, 2018 at 2:18 AM, Barbara Ann Nowak <banowak03@gmail.com> wrote:

Ah yes I see it better now with this map. Indeed, Warsaw, the capital of Poland, is in Russia. As I wrote in my other email, this refers to Russia, Austria, and Prussia uniting to attack Poland. But my people were broken down after 800 years of steady wars and didn't even lift a weapon to stop them. It then became as you see in the map, "Austrian-Hungarian Empire." Then the German Empire, and the Russian Empire. And the British Empire is off the map. I enjoy studying maps. I have a map of Europe on my wall over my printer with all the European countries. Before I studied, I wouldn't have been able to identify any country except Italy with the shape of a boot. I certainly didn't know where Poland was. I went to a Polish-Catholic grammar school and was astonished when I discovered Auschwitz was in Poland. The only subjects they taught me was about German's villainous role in WWII.

When they accuse the Nazi's of all these atrocities, do they realize the war was only six years, not sixty. We were fooled so badly, just like 9/11 with three skyscrapers that turned into dust in a matter of seconds, even though only two planes hit two of them. Worse, Jew Silverstein, gets "double indemnity" for all seven buildings. It means he gets 7 new buildings, plus becomes a billionaire in cash. How wicked!

Best Regards to you also. Barbie

On Wed, May 16, 2018 at 4:50 PM, Adrian Chetwynd <ad.chetwynd@gmail.com> wrote:

Hi Barbara

I sent my last email using my phone so here is a better copy of the map:

I'm thinking that there was a factory at Auschwitz prior to WW1 that was German Jewish owned and that the special political situation was to keep the factory out of the hands of Poland after the treaty was enforced. I therefore suspect that the railway was built before WW1 and the reason why the factory was situated there was because of a supply of local raw materials. The name of the company is irrelevant but it would be interesting to know if such a factory existed prior to the treaty.

According to ((Wikipedia))) the massive factories were built by Jewish slave labour during 1942 which is an absurd claim to make, because factories that size would take years to build and would have been essential to Germany in 1939.

That Jew I mentioned may not have been a Doctor (but sure he was) I cannot remember his name but I came across the article about this "Holocaust survivor" only a few months ago and spotted the oddity in the claim that he was in Auschwitz from 1938, which of course is before Germany invaded Poland.

Thanks to John Gordon for proving my suspicion correct that the main camp was built before the war, but I didn't expect it to be before the first world war! Ask most Normies and I'm sure they would say that the NAZZIES built the main brick camp after they invaded Poland, which again would be a massive task.

Regards

Adrian

On Wed, May 16, 2018 at 9:34 PM, Barbara Ann Nowak <banowak03@gmail.com> wrote:

Hi Adrian,

Interesting questions. Your mind is thinking and reasoning, a terrific sign.

I don't have the answers to those questions. From my sketchy ancestry study, 7 Jewish banking families ruled all 7 Polish tribes. Year 1025. Almost all Jews come from my Poland. It's why the camps were in Poland, not Germany. The Jews enslaved us for 1,000 years. They are now in the USA, which was the reason for the manufactured Holocaust, or Jew-only version. The Jews in Israel came from Russia (Revolution,) but I heard yesterday on a YouTube, the Jews of the Ghetto moved to the Polish boundary near Russia, war broke out, the Russians "won." They won the Polish Jews living on the border, which set the stage for the Revolution. Jews kept us in continuous wars. World War II was a continuation.

I'll take each question and see what I find on the Internet.

Hi Barbara

I wonder if you can help me, I've been checking old maps of Europe and it appears that before the treaty of Versailles, a large chunk of what is now Poland (including Warsaw) was situated in the Russian Empire. See #1 Below:

Before the treaty, Auschwitz appears to have been situated in Germany, and after the treaty some maps have that area shaded as a plebiscite area, meaning that it was under a different type of political control.

See #2

Do you know when the Jewish owned company IG Farben industries first established factories in that area, was it before or after the treaty of Versailles? See #3

Do you know when the main Auschwitz Camp was built, because it was built before war broke out and is claimed to have been built as an Army camp. Could it have been built before the treaty of Versailles? See #4

A certain Jewish doctor is recorded as working in Auschwitz from 1938, so is it possible that the camp was used as a refugee camp before September 1939? See #5

Poland | Old Poland | Art | Map | Questions | Gazetteer | Polish | Culture | Friends | Accommodation | News

Treaty Of Versailles

The Treaty of Versailles, signed in the Versailles Palace outside Paris on June 28, 1919, between the Allied Powers and Germany, brought World War I to an end. In this treaty Poland was given complete independence, control over large areas of land populated by Germans, and an outlet to the sea. To give Poland access to the Baltic Sea a 'corridor' was created by passing control of the German provinces of Posen and West Prussia to Poland. In the process East Prussia was separated from the rest of Germany. Poland also gained half of Silesia. Danzig was made a free city under the control of the League of Nations. The German government signed the treaty under protest. These changes mean that huge numbers of Germans were now under foreign rule. These changes decided on at Versailles were to create major problems in later years and become one of the major reasons for Germany's invasion of Poland in 1939.

A map showing Germany after the changes brought about by the treaty of Versailles.

Here is a copy of the Treaty of Versailles, which refer to Poland, East Prussia, Memel and Danzig.

Treaty Of Versailles - Articles 87 - 108

Political Clauses for Europe

http://polandpoland.com/treaty_versailles.html

My research indicated the Treaty of Versailles gave Poland the Danzig Corridor to specifically start World War II over it, between Poland and Germany. I read the Polish who attacked the Germans were Jews with Polish uniforms.

2. Auschwitz was named:

It doesn't appear it was German before but had a turbulent past. It was called Oświęcim. From my study, Jews kept my people in slavery from 1025. Before World War II, Prussia, Russia, Austria went to war against Poland. There was no war. They simply walked over the border, as in America today with Mexicans. The Austrian leader said to the other two to let Poland go, since all she's known is misery, starvation, and slavery for 800 years. (Only such nation in history.) The other two said, "No, slavery and misery is the only reality the Poles know. To take the people out of it would be harsh on them." It seems true. I guess I'm hard-wired for misery, which is why I can suffer the pains which need to be suffered to advance and not be afraid.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/O%C5%9Bwi%C4%99cim>

3. Interesting you should mention "Farben," I came across it in my studies, along with Bayer aspirin.

Dates: Jun 28, 1919 – Jan 21, 1920 = "Treaty of Versailles."

"IG Farben was founded on 2 December 1925 as a merger of six companies: BASE (27.4 % of equity capital), Bayer (27.4 %), Hoechst including Cassella and Chemische Fabrik Kalle (27.4 %), Agfa (9.0 %), Chemische Fabrik Griesheim-Elektron (6.9 %) and Chemische Fabrik vorm. Weiler Ter Meer (1.9 %)."

If you look on this link's pictures of the men, some were Jews by their last names. Since the Jews enslaved my people not just in Poland, but my South Chicago, I can identify their last names usually. But, I have much research and ancestry. I don't attack them, just expose them.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/IG_Farben

4. They were built in 1905, which would make them before the Versailles Treaty.

"Auschwitz I

Auschwitz I, the main camp, was the first camp established near Oswiecim. Construction began in April 1940 in an abandoned Polish army barracks in a suburb of the city"

"

What was the Auschwitz Concentration Camp before the war?

Have this question too? Request Answers:

Request From Quora

We will distribute this question to writers, and notify you about new answers.

3 Answers

John Gordon, Interested in Modern History
Answered Jul 24, 2016

The well-known brick buildings with a vaguely mock Alpine appearance were originally an Austro-Hungarian cavalry barracks, built c. 1905. Later, when the Duchy of Auschwitz returned to Poland it was used by the Polish Army for a while.

When the Nazi concentration camp was established in May 1940, these buildings formed the core of the camp, which later expanded and at one time had about 45 sub-camps in addition to three camps on the main site."

<https://www.quora.com/What-was-the-Auschwitz-Concentration-Camp-before-the-war>

5.

"A certain Jewish doctor . . . " From what I read, Jews controlled the medical in my Poland, then Germany when they immigrated there about 75 years before World War II, and now here in the USA. Poland was the Jew's home, so likely in 1938, there could have been a Jewish doctor practicing there. Hopefully, Jews don't do to the USA and White countries what they did to my Poland. I read my Polish people who were political prisoners, were the first ones sent to the camps. My rough estimation is my people were there 1939-1945. Jews latter 1943-1945. To me, Jews wanted to mass emigrate out of Old Poland and into New (Jew) SA, which Jews already had control of through communications: Movies 1927 until today. News started 1896, New York Times until now. Jews know "Communication" is how a people survive. Up until now we had only Jewish thoughts jingling in our heads. We're like babies just starting out and must be patient.

I'm not finding anything on Jewish doctors in 1938. Since Jews own Google, pages and pages come up of the German doctor "Mengele," who did experiments on people in the Holocaust flood of information. It's the same with my Poland. Anything I ask for about my people, I get this avalanche of Jewish information. If I eventually find information from my Poland, it's in Polish, the most difficult language. I had to piece together my past through paintings and used books. Jews apparently destroyed anything against them, not just now, but since 1025. It's been perfected that long. Henry Ford said just "knowing the information is the cure." We don't know if another soul will ever get it. I know I can't talk to my relatives, except my older sister. She heard Mama tell Daddy, perhaps 10,000 times, "Stand up to the Jews." He worked for them at a book publishing company that only paid him $.43 an hour when I was born. No raises unless government forced them.

Best Wishes

Barbara Ann

On Wed, May 16, 2018 at 7:20 AM, Adrian Chetwynd <ad.chetwynd@gmail.com> wrote:

Hi Barbara

I wonder if you can help me, I've been checking old maps of Europe and it appears that before the treaty of Versailles, a large chunk of what is now Poland (including Warsaw) was situated in the Russian Empire.

Before the treaty, Auschwitz appears to have been situated in Germany, and after the treaty some maps have that area shaded as a plebiscite area, meaning that it was under a different type of political control.

Do you know when the jewish owned company IG Farben industries first established factories in that area, was it before or after the treaty of Versailles?

Do you know when the main Auschwitz Camp was built, because it was built before war broke out and is claimed to have been built as an Army camp. Could it have been built before the treaty of Versailles?

A certain jewish doctor is recorded as working in Auschwitz from 1938, so is it possible that the camp was used as a refugee camp before September 1939?

Best wishes

Adrian